Reconnect And Rediscover With The Four Seasons

The Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts just announced a new immersive experience program which they are rolling out at some of their top locations worldwide. Among the group are South Florida locations, Four Seasons Hotel Miami and Four Seasons Hotel at The Surf Club, Surfside.

The Reconnect and Rediscover program has created unique experiences, itineraries and special access for its guests at select locations. Whether you're looking for a romantic getaway or spending quality time with friends, this is an opportunity to take advantage of.

Through food, adventure, relaxation and more, this special experience is getting guests to step out of their comfort zone through a variety of all-encompassing programming, in addition to hotel accommodations.

"Four Seasons offers the best of each destination – along with many hidden gems - while also providing an urban oasis for those who'd love nothing more than to relax in the spa, or hide away in their room together for the weekend," said Vince Parrotta, President of Hotel Operations.

The Four Seasons Hotel Miami is categorized under the programs, Dining and Entertainment special. Guests can enjoy, “Brickell & Bubbles” with a two-night stay in the Presidential Suite, a daily poolside cabana and a poolside dinner prepared by Executive Chef, Aaron Brooks.

The other focus for the Reconnect and Rediscover program includes Arts and Culture and Sightseeing and Adventure, at some of the hotel's top locations including Buenos Aires, Bogota, New York and many more.

Even if you don't feel like you need to reconnect and rediscover, you most likely would benefit from doing so. Take advantage of this amazing program and stay at one of the Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts South Florida properties to experience either the Dining and Entertainment sector or Relaxation and Wellness.

While the leaves don't change colors and there are not many pumpkin patches to run through, Miamians still want to feel the autumn breeze. Fall is by far the best season in terms of fashion, home decor, food and drink, and just because we are in Miami doesn't mean we have to miss out. We have put together the ultimate list on how to mimic fall in sunny South Florida.
